Under Its Banners.

of One Baby's Death.

the Free Doctors.

The Subscriptions.

28 Kossuth place, Lena Pofeyn

Arverne, Miss

Pravincialy acknowledged.

Fannie Reinheimer and others

Miss Carrie Spregler and others

Stella Bunting and others.

air. 58 East One Hundred and Six-teenth street. Jennie Lampert and Entertainment, 242 West One Hundred

Baseball Game, Bradburst and Edge

Festival, Midland Park, N. J., Beenie

Pair, East Fifty-third street, Albert

Fair, 509 Baltic street, Mamte Smith

Thirty-second street and Third avenue. Mamie McWilliams and others

Fair, 719 Quincy street, Isabel Douglas

Blanche Adansky, 41 East One Hundred

Birdle Meyer and others

Goldsmith and others

"I lost the baby, but there is hope for the other three," an "Evening World"

Nothing human-could have saved that took its course, and the furniture and children were put on the sidewalk. It might have said that the heavens wept in pity. It would have been kinder if they had been less demonstrative, for the three young children caught cold, which developed into whooping-cough.

Through the goodness and mercy of tiful newspaper charity.

NELL NELSON.

Three Send This.

Inclosed please find 54 cents for the Sick Babies'

East One Hundred and Thirty-eighth street.

Elderthurst Hotel, Rockaway.

Inclused please find $6, the proceeds of an entertainment given at the Elderthurst Hotel Hammel's Station, Rockaway Beach, Sunday evening, Aug. 19, 1804, by the children of the hotel. They all worked very hard to get as much for your tible charity as was in their power and wished it was more liattle Mayer and

Madelaine Geary deserve a great deal of credit

EMMA COOK. MATTIE TOMPSON. BESSIE MASON.

To the Editor:

To the Editor:

physician wrote to the chief of corps.

Fair, Irene L. Garrod and others.

avenue. C. Berger and others.

Frances Newman and others.

street. Able Dane Mendoza

Alexander Pfeiffer. 707

D. Brown, Rockville Centre.

and Twenty-fourth street, Miss Addie

Pair Laing's Cottage

and others .

Beatrice Grouse.

Crist and others.

Kirchner and others

M. Wynkoop and others.

Kneissl and others

and others ..

and others ...

and others

and Sixth street.

others.

4 PARK ROW, New York.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 28, 1894. EUBSCRIPTIONS TO THE EVENING WORLD

Vel. 85...... No. 12,061

ared at the Post-Office at New York as second-

BRANCH OFFICES: ORLD UPTOWN OFFICE-Junction of Broadway and Sixth ave. at 32d st. WORLD HARLEM OFFICE-125th at and Madi-BROOKLYN-309 Washington st.

PHILADELPHIA, PA .- Inquirer Office, $29 Chest-WASHINGTON-TOR 14th st.

BROKE ALL RECORDS IN

471,740

WORLDS per day was the average for July, 1894.

July, 1894 - - 471,740 per day

July, 1893 - - 393,033 per day

Gain in 1 year 78,707 per day

Readers of THE EVENING WORLD teating

McKinleyism is no more forever.

sounds as if something had dropped i

Which yachtsman is it that is now un

From this day on business should im prove, instead of getting worse.

boat race in Newport yesterday.

The decision on the question

the question, "Will a duck swim" was no need of asking.

the Pullman programme.

seem to fit the case exactly.

Treason and treachery are hard terms

The stolen livery of Democratic reform doesn't fit very comfortably on the Gormans of the Senate after President accurate to say that the five men rule

New York by the aid of Republican dickers and in the absence of local selfsounted on to give a good account of her-vated them nor unfitted them for high achievement. Good luck to their racing

For eleven years, single handed, "The government.

glorious victory.

Cleveland's ringing denunciation.

to apply to men sworn to uphold the honor of the country. Yet the words nailed to them regularly.

willing to race?

NEWSPAPER CIRCULATION.

JULY, 1894,

heir continuance in office. unfaithful men from the force. Mr. Goff, able and adroit, can push a acts?

Police Commissioner or a refractory witness into a corner, satisfy the public mind that corrupt practices exist and supply the investigating Senators with good material for their report and good grounds for urging a measure of reform on next year's Legislature.

in the present nor bring guilty

WHY NOT ACT TOGETHER!

vigor and success that has hitherto

The Lexow Committee can only unmarked its progress.

Mr. Wellman, strong and practical, can bring guilt home to an offender and make his punishment certain Why should they not work together at one and the same time, the discoveres of the one making easier the practically useful task of the other? objections made to the police trials on the first meeting of the Lexow ommittee were based on the suspicion that they might be designed to cover up natead of to expose crime, and to protect instead of to punish offenders. The results of the trials show this suspicion o have been unfounded, and there is now no reason why the two inquiries should not proceed at the same time. The Republican Police Commissioners will make a mistake if they refuse to allow the police trials to proceed. The exow investigation will continue until next February, and there is no reason corrupt and unfaithful officers should be granted a lease of abused power for the next four months. the city for the hot months should send in their addresses and have THE EVENING WORLD their way to a renewal of activity. veto. Mr. Cleveland writes a letter to pleasant young actor of limited scope. Representative Catchings, of Mississippi, in which he uses some plain language in reference to those so-called Demoand combinations, whose machinations gests "Lord Chumley." "The Girl Miss Sands has justified her name. She have prevented us from reaching the "sand" enough to win the ladies' catuccess we deserved." The reason given by the President for וושיי Morton accept?" may help us to answer for some sort of a settlement. But he being pressed for reminiscences. ingists on the expediency of the more Philanthropist Pullman was not asked sether there had been any reduction in the price of the Pullman berth. There War time profits for stockholders, was and half-heartedness in their camp."

THE NEW LAW.

ne prices for the public, but reduced wages for the workman; this has been no resurrection of McKinleyism now that

OUR RULERS ABROAD.

The cable brings the important intelligence that Mayor Gilroy has not seen that Postmaster Dayton has not seen good reason for Britannia's default. It so hardened by recent castigations that is said the Prince's determination to popper. Mr. Sternroyd brought to his even Mr. Choate's sharp words are not calculated to make any great impression, accident on Saturday last, by which the chief officer and steward of Britannia chief officer an loss of the honors he has already won, in this bungalow as though they had and is afraid of Vigi ant in the challenge been in Park lane or Fifth avenue. race. But Mr. Gould declares his inten- Still, the women in a play must dress, The American woman can generally be tion to insist on the contest, and claims that if Britannia does not sail against self, and the aristocratic dames who are Vigilant she must give up the cup. salling catboat races at Newport are demonstrating that luxury has not ener- with a fairly good record after all. Mr. Gould will bring his yacht home MISPLACED BASEBAL . William Schriver, one of the catchers Cavezzi Says the Revolver Was World" has fought for an income :ax, and of the Chicago ball team, has succeeded to-day the battle has been won. Million- in catching a baseball dropped from the cause of the people triumphed. Wags- and he succeeded at once. The law sarners are saved $20,000,000 a year in tax a of gravity, which declares that an obwhich the rich must now pay. Truly, a ject falling in space drops so many feet the first second and so much faster the second second, and so on, has, it is said. "The woman tempted me, and I did heretofore deterred ball-players from at d Adam. "This woman has tempting this feat, for Washington Montorn my heart in two, and I will not live ument is over 500 feet in height. There is a longer," says Coachman Schinkling, poitteman on the grounds, however, to it starting out with his revolver. "I believe prevent all such sport, and this may a murderer. Thus is the truthfulness of Chicago ball team are doing something the Bible sustained by the course of this Summer. They have not done much events in the Gates Avenue Police Court, on the ball field, and it may be as well now that Papa Anson has found something his players can do to suborn the Washington Monument "cop" and employ his nine right along in catching The Lexow Committee is about to reballs dropped from the top of the altituconvene and resume its excellent work. It will doubtless be continued with the dinous memorial.

THE MAYOR AND MOUNSEER DEIBLER.

But why should the searching out and Mayor Gilroy, ex-Mayor Grace, ex exposure of wrong-doing interfere with Secretary of Navy Whitney and some the trial conviction and punishment of other New Yorkers are now in gain the doers of wrong? Why should the "Paree." The three gentlemen named Lexow investigation, in fact, be made haven't had any mass-meeting or anythe instrument for at least the tem- thing of that kind, and a genial German porary, protection and keeping in office contemporary, making a reckless dash of the public officers it is instrumental at English slang, tells us that Gilroy and in proving guilty of corrupt and criminal | Grace do not speak "If they pass by." As they are all over there for personal purposes, and seemingly on pleasure earth corruptions with a view to the bent, it is nobody's business what they future correction by legislation of the are doing. But there have been rumors evil methods that render them possible. in connection with our Mayor's visit to Visitors to the Dome Pulitzer Building It can lay the groundwork of reform in the French capital that should be dissithe future. It cannot give us protection pated at once. We have no authority Entertainment, 58 St. Mark's place, for saying so, but we feel called upon justice and rid the city of the danger of nevertheless, to deny the story that Mr. Gilroy is over there dickering with Fair, Laing's Cottage, Arverne, Miss The police trials can apply an imme- Mounseer Deibler for a brief engagediate remedy by driving dishonest and ment with his guillotine in the pantatery at 300 Mulberry street.

"THE VICTORIA CROSS."

A star is a most insatiable person. He wants all the fat of the play, a number of nice men and women playing fiddles of less importance than his own, and a tailor-making playwright, who has tape. scissors and the reputation of fitting well. In the Bowery, the insistent star rescues heroines from tanks, discomfits the villain at a critical moment, and dampens the hair of me-child with On upper Broadway, where tanks are not allowed, the hero covets telling Entertainment, Nicola Dramatic Club situations, sympathetic episodes and a few climaxes of service to himself.

E. H. Sothern has been fitted with Fair Eighty-third atrest and Lexington avenue, Louis Croheim and others Fair, Seventy-third street and Second large suit of upper Broadway heroism by Paul M. Potter in "an original play of East India life." called "The Victoria Pair, Mamaroneck, N. Y., Jennie Bald-win and others. which was produced for the first Cross. time at the Lyceum Theatre last night. By means of this play he tries to Elsie Schafhous, Carrie Sameta and clamber up the flexible rope of sympathy into the somewhat apathetic hearts a polite audience. There was no Entertainment, 264 Van Buren street, tank, of course; no ladder of life, no Fair, 1791 Fulton street, Wilms Horn burning building. Mr. Sothern, however is called upon to dance Sir Roger de Fair, Eltingville, Nora K. Wilson and Coverly with a broken arm, for the sake of his lady love, and then faint from Candy Stand, 346 East Firty-ninth sheer, excruciating angulah; to idiot ically permit himself to father the cowardice of another, and a most uninter-The Tariff bill is now a law, and the esting young person, for no earthly reabusiness men of the country can see son but to make the audience love him. Lemonade Stand, Lillian Reed and finally to treat the villain kindly While permitting the constitutional and set everything right. It is a nice, imitation of time to expire without a clean, insipid and conspicuous role for a Fair, 218 East One Hundred and Seventh

"The Victoria Cross" is a sort of chowder made up of other plays, and rendered seemingly novel by an Indian cratic Senators whose action defeated atmosphere, in which a vizier of the some of the most important features of Nawab of Rampore is villain-in-chief the Wilson bill, and who were found and dandywallahs, kitmutzars and ayahs enlisted in the service of the "Trusts form the background. The play sug-Left Behind Me," "Lettarblair" and "Diplomacy." These are curried, as it were, and served hot, and they are not the course he has pursued are the con- at all unpleasant to the taste. They dition of the country and the necessity are four good plays, and they can stand

The story of "The Victoria Cross. comprehensive tariff reform contem- which is at times almost lost sight of plated by the Wilson bill, and feels in a mass-or a jungle, to be Indianconfident that the struggle will continue of trivial incidents that recall Belasco to a successful issue, provided the Dem- deals with the advent of a new "padre ocratic party challenges open warfare to Sir Alian Strathalian's bungalow and guards carefully against "treachery" There are pretty girls, swell women and end-of-century youths in this bun-The President is right. There can be galow. Ralph, the padre, fallsin love with the prettiest of the girls, and as it is laid in its grave. Reform does not he has already won the Victoria cross she looks upon him as a hero. He takes pretty good care that she shall; so does Mr. Potter. There is an uprising of natives, on account of Sir Allan's horse racing man-horses being looked upon ex-Secretary Whitney while in London; as sacred in India-and the bungalow is besieged. The villatnous Ahmedoollah Mr. Gilroy; that ex-Mayor Grace will and a skittish young widow steal a consent to no combination with Tam- paper from a convenient cabinet in many, and that Edward Parmelee Jones order to learn Sir Allan's route when

Cleveland's ringing denunciation.

Cleveland's ringing denunciation.

Consents ringing denunci ess, and C. P. Flockton a conscientious

"The Victoria Crass" was exquisitely Mr. Choate does not state the whole tost their lives. But this is scarcely a staged, the pictures being worthy of ruled by five men. It would be more tost account to the cancelling any that have been in the Lyceum. The MATTLE TOMPSON attisfactory reason.

There are those who believe that gorgeons of gowns, and changed them perpetually. They were as peacockesque perpetually. They were as peacockesque to the bungalow as though they had don't-you-know? and the amateur ac-tress, who insisted upon wearing a white satin gown, cut low, when she climbed the Rocky Mountains, knew her bust-ness.

SHOT AT HIS ENEMY.

Accidentally Discharged. aires, politicians and their newspaper top of Washington Monument. He is was held in default of $1,000 bail for backers were arrayed against it, but the the second ball-player to attempt the feat trial on a charge of attempted felonious Nicolo Cavezzi, twenty-four years old. trial on a charge of attempted felonious assault by Justice Ryan in the Essex Market Police Court to-day. Alexander Camaan, of is Ludlow street, who keeps a newsetant in front of the Tombs, was the complainant against him. The men have been on had terms for some time, and when they met in Hester street last night it is alleged that Cavezzi drew a revolver and fired a shot at Canaan. The bullet went far from its mark. Before Cavezzi had time to discharge second shot Policeman Herbole Leimer Progress Lodge, No. 4 of the Order of True Friends, which comprises a large and representatest val one sight last week in Suizer's Harley starting out with his revolver. "I believe you are the author of this man's have more to do with the delayment of trouble," says Justice Quigly, addressing the achievement than all the laws of Widow Clauss, who had demanded the protection of the law from a threatening. We are glad, though, to know that the protection of the law from a threatening out with his revolver, and this many ascend shad lime to discharge and discrement hierboic Leimer. ADA W. TILTON.

Second shad Polleman Herboic Leimer the court that he was affailed of Cavezzi hauf time to discharge and discrement hierboic Leimer the achievement than all the laws of affailed of Cavezzi hauf time to discharge and the second shad Polleman Herboic Leimer the achievement than all the laws of affailed of Cavezzi hauf time to discharge and the second shad Polleman Herboic Leimer the achievement than all the laws of affailed of Cavezzi hauf time to discharge and the second shad Polleman Herboic Leimer the achievement than all the laws of affailed of Cavezzi hauf time to discharge and the second shad Polleman Herboic Leimer the achievement that he was affailed of Cavezzi hauf time to discharge and the second shad Polleman Herboic Leimer the achievement that he was affailed of Cavezzi hauf time to discharge and the second shad Polleman Herboic Leimer the achievement that he was affailed of Cavezzi hauf time to discharge and the second shad Polleman Herboic Leimer the achievement that the was affailed of Cavezzi hauf time to discharge and the second shad Polleman Herboic Leimer the achievement that the chievement that the was affailed to the shad Polleman Herboic Leimer the achievement that the second shad the shad Polleman Herboic Leimer the achievement that the colleman Herboic Leimer the shad Polleman Herboic Leimer the achievement that the shad P

Progress Lodge to the Front.

A Popular Charity with an Army

The pleasure grounds that night was John Berry, The Elight of Progress worked with a determination to accel the results of the forties to accel the second of the forties to accept the second of the forties and the girls gathered together 116, 25. The Lodge added 111,50. Altogether the Sock Bables Fund benefits 127,25 by the featival Following are the officers: George Brooks, President, James J. Stevin, Vice-Freshdent, James Der Recording Secretary, Feter Mc-Bride, Triessurer, Bernard McGinness, Guide: E. P. Jones, Warden, All the Supreme and Past Presidents for the Order were present, viz. A. J. Huzley, Alas Forsyth, John Byrne and Dr. W. A. E. McKee, Chiers present were Herman J. Ech. H. H. Gregory, Jacob Hammel, M. J. Kelly, Mchael Keane, John, L. Grabam, A. Wyle, James Liewellyn, Max Wallenstein, Dr. George E. Heel, Robert Ruthanan, Joseph Prey, Gu. Scharre, R. E. Butts, George Wettgrew and Jacob Hammel, Past President Huxley disposed of 100 tickets for the occasion, and Secretary Eyrne was formerly accretary and editor of Progress Lodge, No. 4. The grand Summer-night's featival passed off in the most enjoyable manner. "Nell Nelson's " Sympathetic Story An Example of the Noble Work of Fair at 1735 Madison Avenue.

To the Editor: Thirteen is said to be an unlucky number with a fair held at 1735 Madtson avenue, which regitted $101.55 for the Baby Fund. There were nirteen tittle ladies running it, and they did ousted England. France and Germany from the as anythoneer, and got good prices for the goods. Miss Addie Cohn presided over the jaweiry booth and rendered valuable service. The thirteer little ladies who devoted all their energies and originated

Jessie Str.
Milleent Cohn.
Cora Falk.
Bertha Peris.
Betheds Northschild.
Betern.
Betran,

Eight Bright Children. To the Editor

Inclosed you will find $46, collected at a fair and entertainment held at 232 East Seventy-first street on last Monday, Tuesday and Thursday evenious under the care of eight bright and char-

Nothing human-could have saved that pathetic little creature down in East Thirteenth street. It had only been on earth six months, but in that short time disease and the blights of poverty and Summer heat had aged its baby face and withered its delicate form. There were seven in the family. The father has had no work for the past eight months, and the mother is too weak to do domestic service. All Winter the house agent had been nidulgent. Finally notice was given. The rooms had to be cleaned. When the kalsominers arrived they were still occupied. Then the law took its course, and the furniture and Baby Mildred's Birthday rained during the night. A romancer To the Editor A magic-lantern show was given at 15 Webster red Marka's third birthday, at which $5.25 was ealized for the sick babies. Annie Cheelite, May Cheelite, Charles Anderson, Joseph Cheelite, South Brooklyn, N. Y. real estate firm who caused A Splendid Fair in Brooklyn. To the Editor:

We held a fair at the residence of Mrs. O. I. Genth, 157 Nevins street, Brooklyn, Aug. 2 to 11, at which we realized $21.32 Mr. F. Bohm.

Danielson and Mr. Schaeffer helped us deal.

NELLIE GRAY, 260 Wyckoff street.

EMMA MACK, 268 Wyckoff street.

MAGGIE MACK, 268 Wyckoff street.

MANGGIE MACK, 268 Wyckoff street.

MANNIE BUNGE, 167 Nevins street.

MINNIE BUNGE, 167 Nevins street.

MARGARET GRAY, 248 Warren street.

MARGARET GRAY, 248 Warren street.

A First-Class Fair.

o the Editor: Inclosed please find $21, proceeds of a fair beld it 260 West One Hundred and Fifteenth street Mrs. Kessier was kind enough to allow us. the use of an empty flat. Inclosed also please find photograph of our "Mascots." Harrison and David Gordon. Trusting we may still be able to benefit the noble cause, we remain. Arthur Reichman and John Illoore, managers, who were kindly assisted by Sydney Ruhland and Lote and Marche Pariente.

Two Little Boys. To the Editor:

Here are 14 cents. We are two little boys. We have waved one-half of all our July pennies for Little Lemounde Sellers.

alized from the sale of temonade. In Stamps.

To the Editor: Inclosed please find 50 cents postage stamps for the Sick Pables' Fund from two little girls.

RAY ROSENBERG, ROSIE SPERO. 41 East One Hundred and Sixth street. They Are Four.

To the Editor: Inclosed you will find $2 which we collected by selling lemonade and caudy. We hope it will do some good to the little ones. We are four.
Mary Durke, 11. Alice McCullough, Katie McCullough, 9. Maggie Harnett.

With Love to the Bables. To the Editor:

We, the undersigned, have collected $2.10 to

Given to the Bables.

Madelaine tieary deserve a great deal of credit for their sorts in this affair. After the entertainment there was a hop gives. By the kind assistance of Mr. Zittel in delivering the opening speech, we were greatly helped. The programme was as follows. Lottic Martin, ninevers old, plaved a heautiful plane solo. Hattle Mayer recited, Madelaine fleary dashed the skirt dance. Florence Well recited. Hattle Mayer sang "The Little Lost Child. Hattle and Rose Katz played a dued. Marie Genry recited. Madelaine Genry some "The Mail of the Mill, tableau, "The Peacetus Steep, Lillion Warner relied. Ruth Harris recited. Master Henry Silk, six years old, the only little box in the house recited most beautifully. THE CHILDREN. To the Editor. Inclosed please find $2.50, which you may use for any charitable purpose which you may deem the best.

To the Editor:

Inclosed find $5.35, the proceeds of a fair which trains with the membership, held a grand Summer-night's was held on Saturday. Aug. 18. We hope this test val one hight last week in Suiter's Hariem will do some good for the habies and wish it fiver Park Carino and Gardens. One Hundred was six times the amount. ViGLA M. DURRNA. ADA W. TILTON.

LETTERS.

Ideas fly fast, but flies fly faster,

And put them at once to flight

The poet to fret and spite

And ruin a Summer night!

to the Editor

VND Brown transferred - The mation to give, a subject of general interest to dis-cuss or a public service to acknowledge, and was letters eannot be printed. The Poet and the Flies.

blue, and in bad weather the hood is this process destroys the wearing qualfor the Winter cape, now being designed women want elastic kid, so as to make

"It is all very well to want to deco way up on hyglene, and would be horriwith that gaudy screen concealing the fireplace the is shutting off one of the in Summer. The draught which keeps place, with its draught, is a splendid means of keeping any room well ventilated and also cooler. In hotels, where the ugly black iron screen is fastened tightly over the opening, it should be Beauty Breakfast-+Wednesday.

Stewed Pears.

Fried Mush-Melted Butter.

Milk Toast.

Oxford Cloth Will Be Worn.

A brand-new material fortailor dresses

'Oxford mixt." It is a rough surface.

wears like haircloth. It is being made those elegant New York women who affect the severest styles for street wear.

The skirts are absolutely plain, made of changeable blue or red silk, with pull-backs to hold the organ plaits. The coat

Chicken Wings.

A nice dish can be made from the impede that air current.

With one window open and fied if she was told to the contrary, but

"Now, Mrs. L. thinks she is

He carries to bed a roll of paper On which to indite his dreams-But look at the files that round it caper, And darken his fancy's gleams As oft in a gust, a cloud of dust

O'ershadows the bright sun's beams The fly-paper sold by grocer's 'prentice Can never attract like this! The post exclaims: The files, with a lazy burz, say, "Bliss"

His mightiest thoughts these flends can maste

Though scoffers malign the poet fine, Files worship his frenzied phiz: The sone of the flies at night sound sadder And, if he is mad, they make him madder;

They good him to rave in proce outsing; with leg and wing They worry his head and toes! And into his eye. Oh, my' they fly, sir; And huzz in his flowing hair.

Till wildly he yearns to die, as die, sir, His exquisite dreams in air! The Summer he hates. Jack Frost, wegates Approach and dispel despair! LYTTELTON L. BAKER.

407 Eighth street, South Brooklyn. Wages and Immigration.

To the Editor It is pleasant to think as John S.

that with free trade and a tax of $200 on each he earning 40 cents an hour, and we shall have markets of the world. Fortunately for try, however, the majority do not think as Mr Brown docs; for "thinking" might beget "acting" and acting on such illogical assumpt most certainly result to the detriment of all those whom it were supposed to benefit. Wages are Ligh when work is plenty and laboring men one has olives; others are fastened with scarce. A protective tariff, by shutting out foreign reductions, opens our factories and decreases the oring man becomes independent. The manufacturer is in business, not for pleasure, but for cover a theatre bodice. profit. If the manufacturer's profits decline and earner must consent to a reduction or resign his esition to another who will. Free trade not only esens profits, but in many cases closes our factories, swelling the army of unemployed, many of whom, as a natural consequence, becomes inmates to appear, of prison, poorhouse, &c., thus increasing way up on taxes and the others serve as a handy weapon the manufacturer to use against his employees, who, to save themselves from a worse fate, generally yield to their employers' terms. When such best means of ventilation the room has poor remedy, because there would then be nothing to encourage immigration to our country and them away. We cannot compete with foreign procers, even in our own market, unless wages are cut down to the level (barring a small fraction) theirs, or their wages raised to our standard. probably gain the ascendancy over Eu-A. KAPLAN. ducers in other countries.

Reading the Bible.

than a potted plant or palm should ever The repeated attacks upon the Holy Bible by make a few remarks in reply. In the first place e Bible having been written originally in the Hebrew language, the understanding and translation of the same is by no means an easy matforms us, allegorically, philosophically and lit raily, which shows that besides its literal trans stance, the first sentence, which has been trans riv: because it is preposterous and he heavens and the little speck in the univers which we call the earth, while all the rest of the suns and planets had to wait until the fourth The proper translation of the first sentence Matter and the Ethereal." And so it is almost place, South Brooklyn, on Aug. 8, in honor of Mil-dred Marke's third birthday, at which $5.25 was. There is within a hidden truth which cannot be realized for the sick behave. obtained by the simple reading of one version The truth here is a prize to be won only by those who seek it diligently and with a view to hose who seek the they have procured it.

Cigarettes in Moderation.

cheap grade-five cents a package of ten) for the Prussian collar, fits tight, and is becompast ten years, averaging a package a day of ing to all figures. twenty-four hours. My health has always been good, not having been sick a single day during that time. I would be willing to bet the price of the hat "Cigarette Harry" was talking through wings of fowls by stewing slowly until when he wrote his article to "The Evening extremely tender. Then make a puree World" that he will be smoking before many days. Laying all jokes saide, I think "Cigar-ette Harry" must have had a defective flue. No doubt he did a good thing when he stopped make hogs of themselves, and I think he is one of that kind. COME AGAIN. N. B.-I am of the opinion that cigarettes will prolong the life of any one if they are smoked

Irish Girl's Stockings.

To the Editor: in common with your correspondent "Scotch Irish." I also lotted the statement in "The Evening World" that "in their native lands Irish and Scotch girls seldom wear stockings." Your informant must have evolved this statement from clearness; second, color; third, size, and Cape Clear to Malin Head, I beg to say I never ruby is rarely or never found; cracks, met an Irish girl who did not wear stockings, ex Wendel Stein, of 1560 Broadway, assisted by cept in very remote country districts. Imagine his brother, Willie, send $2.50 which they re-Selfast, or Patrick street, Cork, promenading minus stockings! Oh, ye gods! the idea is too grotesque for even the American public to con-EUGENIAN, Jersey City.

She Is Driving Him Crazy. To the Editor:

I have been keeping company with a young ady about a year, and during that time I have Sunday last, and I asked her if she would be willing to accept me. The answer she gave me was: "I'm too young (she is nineteen) and don't know you long enough to marry you." I am iust about crary. What shail I do? AL, Brooklyn, N. Y.

To the Editor: I am a young lady thirty years of age. I am the Sick Babies' Fund, and hope that this will rich, accomplished and beautiful. I have several "BEAUTY."

A Sailor Wants to Know. To the Editor:

I wish to know from some of your correspondents whether there are in New York any private schools of navigation, where a common sailor can obtain sufficient theoretical knowledge necessar for getting higher degrees in the commercia navy service. A YOUNG SAILOR.

He's Not Sentimental.

To the Editor: Can any one inform me how to tell whether dainty hand look big, and so the face of This is the cape worn by the French the skin is literally shaved, making the policemen. The service cloth is dark suede or undressed kid glove. Of course drawn over the head. This is the model ity at least 50 per cent. Another thing for New York girls in homespuns, a No. 6 glove fit a 63-4 hand. To get this the stock is put into a steaming. room, where the heat makes each skin expand two-thirds of its original size, Naturally the texture is weakened, and by the time the delicate skin gets on a woman's hand it has had 70 per cent. of its life worn out. Kid skin is durable, month or so ago there was a cut in silks, and taffetas, in all the season's checks, stripes and tints of color were lumped at 59 cents. Instead of waiting for the modistes and importers to get around and bundle them up for linings, the dressmaking department, and had them pinked ruffles, puckered out, back gores braid. Now they are fluttering in large.

Simple Breakfast in Japan.

In Japan the breakfast of the gentlefolks is even lighter than the morning

Cost of Living in France.

The European plan of living is most deceptive. In the best pensions of

Hussar Contag

Here's news for the girls who love the nilitaire. Hussar coats will be worn. They are to be made in military grav covert cloth and trimmed with black military braid, exactly like the Austrian horse-artillerymen wear. The cut inclines to the Prince Albert-that is, it the skirt spring and makes the figure trim. The back is tight-fitting; braid covers the curve lines running from the arms to the waist, and gay little Austrian knots finish them. A little braid skirt.

Ment, Vegetables and Strength. recommended is the combination model, which, by the arrangement of buttons claim that animal food is indispensable For the benefit of "Cigarette Harry" I would and lapels, can be worn double-breasted, to muscular strength should not forget ike to say that I have smoked cigarettes tof a high neck or open in front. It has a that the cow is gentle and the poble horse is strong. Their diet is grain and grass. Deer, sheep, elephants, the ga-

tured by animal food.

wings of fowls by stewing slowly until of peas, by boiling a quantity of peas, either fresh or canned, in water until tender, draining and .nashing through sieve and seasoning with salt and pepper and butter. Just before mashing through the sieve thicken with a tablespoonful of flour to every quart of peas. Wet the flour with cold water and cook for two minutes. Serve on a steak dish with the wings piled on top. Priceless Rubies.

Fine rubles of one carat are ten times more valuable than diamonds of similar size and quality. In appraising rubles Your four points are considered-first of all, lastly, perfect formation. A perfect scratches and flaws are insignificant if the color is good and the brilliancy strong. In examining these stones the judges hunt for clouds or milk spots; it none is found a "pigeon's blood." weigh ing a fraction over a carat, will bring the owner a little fortune.

Just now it is the style to mark linen with type. Some of the Leautiful hand kerchiefs that are bought for folks by devoted wives and daughters have th printed initials worked in blue thread. Initials seem to be masculine; feminine taste runs to monogram decorations.

Brown Bread for Beauty. Eat brown bread, girls, and be healthy and good-looking. Here is recipe from one of the teachers of hygienic cooking: One pint of sour milk, one quart of The stoke basies rand, and hope that this will refer accompliance and beautiful. I have several graham flour, one teaspoonful of salt, bables.

LOUIS PLANSKY, JOSE KOHN.

All from 430 East Fifty-eighth sireet.

All from 430 East Fifty-eighth sireet. ing powder, one-half cupful of Orleans molasses. Eat with plenty of sweet butter for breakfast. At lunch or dinner, i there is meat, omit the butter. This bread, with tea, coffee, chocolate boiled milk, is a meal that will do the women folks a lot of good.

Why Gloves Don't Last.

Every woman who buys the kid gloves for the family knows that the men's and children's last twice as long as her own A man's $2 glove goes out of style before it shows wear. The expense of my gentleman friend loves me or not? He is a perfect gentleman. I am very much in love with him, but he does not act at all sentimental.

Women's gloves is due entirely to her "eggs." "fresh eggs" and "mental. "eggs." in stock, and the custom that a dressed kid glove makes her her money and takes her choice.

as proved by its value to shoe, pocketbook and fancy-box manufacturers. Shop-Made Silk Petticonts.

Dry-goods merchants are shrewd. A managers sent the best pieces to the made into petticoats, with clusters of and responsive drawstrings of silk beauty and airlness from the limbs of clothes-trees, with a $5.59 price-card in relief. It takes seven yards of silk to make the model skirt. Counting the cost of labor, thread, drawstrings and pinking, the merchant's profits are not repast of the bon-ton of Europe. Lor don has toast and tea; Paris, rolls and plaids, checks and military cloths. This cafe au lait; Berlin, the same; Vienna, ditto, and Rome, sweet biscuits and coftwo or three horn buttons. They are all fee. In the Mikado's realms there is no bread for breakfast-nothing but clear long enough to cover the walking coat. ranks of the unemployed. The chances for secursilk or changeable satin, intended to with fresh fruit seasoned with pepper. In the sweet contrariness of these fan tastic little people vegetables are served with sugar and fruits with condiments. We preserve citron, pineapples, ginger, rate an open fireplace," said a prominent woman physician, as we sat waiting in cherries and melon rind; they have capdied beans, peas, beets and other roots. charming uptown flat for the hostess

France one can get a very comfortable room with a single bed, one window, the usual furniture and a sepulcher of a stove, that burns like a lucifer match the fire burning in Winter docsn't stop and gives as much heat, for 50 cents, because July has come. An open fire- That is always attractive to a lone woman. Everything else is bought ungrowth is something fearful. To wit: Candles, 20 cents; fire, 25 cents; service, 26 cents; coffee and rolls, 15 cents; icewater, 5 cents; pen, ink, envelopes and the fireplace not stopped up with a lot letter-paper, 5 cents-every single, soli-of truck, a fine current of air can be tary thing called for is extra. If a peach secured that is a blessing. Nothing more or an egg is ordered for breakfast 15 cents is added to expenses. Two loaves of sugar and a spiral curl of butter go with the coffee, but if another portion is asked for there is another nickel to pay. Living is not cheap, but there, as verywhere, one can live cheaply.

the Oxford cloth, known in trade as has a seam over the hips, which gives soft woollen black stuff mixed with white; it drapes like Chinese crepe, and up now for Autumn brides, tourists and with the ornamental knots is put on the

> Those bloodthirsty meat-eaters who zelle and other grand and beautiful specimens of creation are vegetarians. The finest breeds of dogs are raised on milk and grain. Ferocity, venom, craftis ness, treachery and all the passions of brute creation are supposed to be nur-

> English Coiffures A peculiarity of English women is the wearing of elaborate colffures. Nowhere is so much false nair worn as in England. It is made up in all sorts of ingenious ways to be pinned on bodily. The fashion of parting the hair and wearing the little curl in the middle of the forehead so prevalent in New York is not seen there. Instead the fine frizzes worn by the Princess of Wales and her daughters are imitated by most Stock from Paris. A new stock comes from Paris to go with the tailor-made dress. The collar of the sex.

is white ribbon, the bows are wired and the ends trimmed with lace. For evening wear these stocks are reproduced in white and jewel-colored chiffen.

To Save the Hair.

An old charlatan, who made enough noney out of hair restoratives to retire from business, gives the following prescription for hair that falls out, and warrants it a harmless if helpless rem-

Pulverized sulphur, one teaspoonful Glycerine, four ounces. Bathing whiskey, one-half pint. Rock salt, one-half cupful.

Paris Hens Are Like Ours. In Paris, as in New York, eggs are among the table luxuries. Dealers keep "eggs," "fresh eggs" and "new-laid eggs," in stock, and the customer pays